For good yarn go to the Star Store.

MARRIED.

KENNEDY-MILLER-In this City, Wednesday evening Nov. 21, by Rev. W. E. Chambliss, Mr. John M. Kennedy, and Miss Carrie Miller, all of this place.

Johnny we wish you all the happiness and joy possible in this ambulatory sphere. "And may you live long and prosper."

HOYLES-MORRISON-At the residence of the officiating minister, Rev. W. F. Fletcher, is this place, November 21, 1883, Mr. J. H. Hoyle and Miss Clara E. Morrison, all of Kirksville.

Where sickness and sorrow are no more.

DIED.

STEWART-Emma E., daughter of Wm. and Margaret Stewart, of Clay township, Mo. Nov. 21st, 1883, at age 3 years.

Thus ends the sufferings of one made lovely, indeed, by her kind disposition and intelligence, even above her age, leaving parents, two brothers, one sister and other relatives to mourn their great loss.

Funeral discourse by the writer from the text: "The Lord gave and the Lord taketh away."

J. S. WILLIAMS.

This lovely bud, Ere it had bloomed Was snatched by death: Laid in the tomb, Her maker did her call away As if too good on earth to stay

Then morning friends, weep no more She has only gone a little before, Has entered heaven's pearly gate And there will for thee await: And when life's tedious journey's o'er May you be gathered on that blissful shore Where sickness and sorrow are no more.

VICE-Consul, Mrs. M. V. Vice, daughter of Godfrey Spring, aged 22 years, one month and one day.

She left four children, three girls and one boy, that are now in charge of their grand parents.

DEPRANCE-At her residence in this city, after a long and painful illness, Mrs. J. M. Deprance, on Wednesday morning at one o'clock.

GRAPHICS.

Rain And mud. New time table Took effect Sunday. The train from the west arrives at 4 P. M.

Big crowd in town Saturday last. Some hay stacks north of town burned Saturday.

Our advertisers insist on editing a large part of the GRAPHIC this week. The Minstrel troupe advertised for Monday night failed to materialize.

Mrs. Mattie Hull, a noted eastern lady, lectures at Baylor's Hall, Sunday morning at eleven and Sunday evening at 7:30.

Meetings are still in progress at the M. E. Church with increased interest and attendance.

Joseph B. Allen, of the Triple Alliance, is announced to speak in this place on to-morrow, if a suitable place can be secured for the purpose.

The protracted meetings at the C. P. Church which closed last week resulted in 42 accessions to the church, and as many more professions of conversion.

Toll's New Gallery is approaching completion and it is a "Daisy" in convenience, arrangement, equipment, and has a light unequalled in north Missouri for producing artistic effects. Call in and see him, new brick block, north side of the square.

Mr. W. W. Reece, a subscriber living at Yarmouth, Iowa, writes us as follows: "Having been a member of the GRAPHIC family from the first issue. I can ill afford to leave you now. My little girl says, 'Pa, send on for the GRAPHIC so we won't miss a number.'"

The Lecture Room, Opera Hall, Auditorium, Theater, Hall, or whatever term may be applied to it, in Smith's Writing Institute opened and inaugurated, this week, is something for Kirksville to be proud of. At last we have a public place for gatherings, fit for an intelligent audience, and of sufficient capacity to warrant first class talent whether it be lecturer, singer orator or actor. We don't care what they call it, we have got it at any rate.

PERSONALS.

B. F. KERN started to Philadelphia Monday afternoon.

Hon. D. S. HOOPER returned to Dakota Monday night.

Train Wrecked.

On Monday afternoon the east bound accommodation train dived five cars between Greencastle and Jasmine. A lot of cows, hogs etc. were killed and crippled but none of the passengers were hurt. The passengers were brought in on the tender, but the train itself did not arrive till sometime after midnight.

Thieving Raid.

Two parties by the name of Rhodes and Bradley recently indulged in a horse stealing raid on quite a large scale. They live in the vicinity of Bucklin and the scene of their depredations extended over into this county. One of them is now in the Chariton county jail and the other is dodging his pursuers in the brush. Among other stock taken were three young horses belonging to O. B. Milliken, of Walnut township, which were running on the range. Mr. Milliken, assisted by John Greenstreet, L. S. Curry and others, got on the track of the thieves and followed them to Chillicothe. One of the parties is now in jail and the other one, let out on bail before the extent of his depredations were fully known, is dodging as before stated.

Mr. Milliken secured all his stock though at considerable loss of time and money. He was in town Tuesday and furnished us the above information.

R. N. Williams, Cameron, Mo., says: "I believe Brown's Iron Bitters to be good, and do no hesitate to recommend it."

Joe H. NICHOLS.

Times Change.

And men change with them. As Tennyson says: "Men may come and men may go," but the fact of the business is that one of our old land marks in business is closing out his immense stock preparatory to making a change. We mean Jos. Bann, who for over twenty years has "held the fort" while other men have "come and gone" like early snows. He means business and don't you forget it. Everything, staple as well as fancy goods, marked right down. Call in and see him. Only sixty days more.
